

EMIGRANTS

Overseas jobs event for the RDS

THOUSANDS of people looking to emigrate for work are expected to descend on a conference next month.

Hundreds of overseas companies will be at the Working Abroad Expo to help unemployed people find new opportunities abroad.

Last year huge queues descended on Dublin's RDS and organisers expect the same amount of interest after CSO figures still show huge numbers emigrating.

There will be recruiters travelling all the way from Sydney, Auckland and Toronto and Alberta to recruit skilled Irish workers.

Emigration expert Stephen McLarnon said: "The likes of New Zealand now look to Ireland to recruit workers to help rebuild Christchurch."

The event takes place at the RDS on October 1 and 2.

